

THE THACHER-REYNOLDS MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP

The Thacher-Reynolds Prize supports research by a philosophy major in his or her final summer and academic year at the University. The Thacher-Reynolds Prize is made possible by generous gifts from Michael Thacher, a University alumnus; and Daniel H. Weiss, President of Lafayette College (Easton, Pennsylvania), in honor of his relative Matthew Reynolds, a University alumnus, who died of cancer while a student at New York University.

HOW TO APPLY

To get the application email philosop@gwu.edu or pick up the application in the Philosophy Department in Rome room 553.

Eligibility Requirements

1. Must be a GWU Philosophy Major who is either a junior or senior scheduled to graduate after summer 2017
2. Minimum 3.5 GPA in philosophy (3.3 overall GPA)
3. Well defined research project to be conducted under the mentorship of a philosophy faculty member

The fellowship will provide $2,000 to support research activities for a philosophy major in their senior year.
